A New Decade. New Stories. New Perspectives.

Welcome to the new decade! 2020 brings a full slate of exciting new talents, a fresh look at history and new seasons of our international hit shows.

Beta Film again has a strong showing at this year's Canneseries competition, with all but three world premieres, starting with the star-studded affair that changed history. Inspired by true events, ATLANTIC CROSSING centers on Crown Princess Märtha, who flees the Nazis to live in the FDR White House and becomes an influential figure in world politics. Golden Globe®-winning and twice Emmy®-nominated legendary actor Kyle MacLachlan (Twin Peaks) stars as US President Franklin D. Roosevelt alongside multi-awarded Sofia Helin (The Bridge) in the limited event series.

Another strong woman is at the center of our second competition title. The dramedy series 257 REASONS TO LIVE revolves around the truly unbreakable and charming Zhenya. At only thirty, she beats cancer; but when everyone she leaned on turns out to be a massive jerk, she sets out to check off every wish on her bucket list – 257 of them – and she will fulfill them all, no matter how crazy they are!

Finally, CRYPTID, the first-ever Nordic YA supernatural short-format series will celebrate its Canneseries world premiere and follows two teenage siblings, who, after a chain of tragic events, have to face their darkest fears in order to overcome an evil force feeding on chaos and the misery of mankind.

Lastly, Beta is proud to introduce the highest-budget contemporary Movistar+ drama series to date. Executed by an award-winning creative team, LA UNIDAD is action-laden, highly emotional Spanish storytelling at its best. Shot in five international locations the near-future vision of Southern Europe and Northern Africa under attack by a terrorist strike centers on a handful of easily forgotten but truly heroic women and men.

It's a new decade full of new perspectives and exciting stories.

Discover them with us and have a great market!

limited event series

Based on true events, ATLANTIC CROSSING is the untold story of the Norwegian Crown Princess becoming a very influential figure in world politics during World War II, depicting the tragic events of the war from a unique and unseen perspective.

Starring Sofia Helin (THE BRIDGE) as Crown Princess Märtha and Kyle MacLachlan (TWIN PEAKS) as U.S. President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

1940. Norway is occupied by Nazi Germany. Crown Princess Märtha and her children find shelter as political refugees in the White House. Her presence in Washington soon influences President Roosevelt's views on the tragic events unfolding in Europe and eventually changes the dynamics of U.S. politics significantly. What starts as a friendship turns into affection and turmoil when Märtha speaks out publicly against the Nazi tyranny. In an attempt to fight for her country, she puts her marriage at risk and convinces the President to support Norway – a first step in the struggle that will lead to the U.S. joining the war. However, Märtha's actions cause her to make many enemies, some of them even closer than she thinks: within the walls of the White House.

Executed by an award-winning creative team, LA UNIDAD is not just the next shot at the task force genre. It is the story of a handful of easily forgotten but truly heroic women and men.

Melilla. Tangiers. Toulouse. In the dark of night, officers from the Spanish, Moroccan and French police forces carry out a synchronized anti-jihadist strike, but retaliation looms.

Madrid. An ordinary apartment house. This used to be the home of Carla, Marcos and their eight-year-old daughter Lua. Now Marcos has moved out. Carla is the head of the counter-terrorist squad, Marcos her first officer. Used to following Carla's orders on the job, Marcos can't grasp why he and Carla are history.

Despite the secret she's keeping from Marcos, Carla just needs to get things done. Like detecting the terrorists' hidden agenda before more lives are sacrificed. Or organizing Lua's Communion. Or making the tough choices a strong leader must – like removing rookie agent Miriam from Marcos' command to go on her own vital mission.

YA supernatural thriller from the Nordic. Based on an idea by Sylvain Runberg, author of the graphic novel adaptation of Stieg Larsson's MILLENIUM trilogy. By the producers of AGENT HAMILTON and MIDNIGHT SUN.

After their mother's tragic and untimely death several years ago, the siblings Niklas and Lisa have been struggling to piece their lives back together. While Lisa chose to run away and find a new life elsewhere, Niklas has stayed behind to take care of their grieving father. When the horrific and seemingly supernatural death of his classmate coincides with the return of his long-lost sister, the high-school student's fragile sanity is quickly falling apart. As terror spreads among the students, Niklas is forced to deal with adolescent drama, mental illness and the rising suspicion of being a killer. At the same time, Lisa starts to have strange visions of her mother, blood rituals and the occult. As she digs deeper into her mother's mysterious death, an evil from the past reveals itself to feast on the chaos and misery of humankind.

Even though she beat cancer, Zhenya's life falls apart as everyone she leaned on turns out to be a massive jerk. But this young woman is truly unbreakable and she sets out to check off every wish on her bucket list: 257 of them – and she will fulfill them all!

At only thirty, Zhenya has had it rough. But after three years of fighting, the unthinkable happens: her cancer is in remission! Yet what should be the happiest day of her life quickly turns into a disaster. Her boyfriend doesn't waste time and dumps her on the spot. You're better? Good-bye then. At work, everyone is more irritated to see her alive than happy to see her back. And her younger sister Sonya, self-obsessed Insta-Queen, won't let go of the income she created from online fundraising for Zhenya's treatment. All of this is enough to break a person. But not Zhenya! The answer is an old notebook she started when she was first diagnosed. In it: a bucket list of 257 wishes – small and silly, epic and complex, grounded and ambitious. The plan: do everything on the list. Off to new adventures, Zhenya is determined to keep her chin up – and is immediately run over by Konstantin, a grumpy yet handsome stranger... well, when life hands you lemons, be sure to ask for more!

When Metin suddenly and unexpectedly becomes the single dad of his 6-month-old daughter, his world is turned upside down. Now, he has to balance the chaos of life on his own – or so he thinks...

Let's be honest. The male Homo Sapiens found wiping a snotty nose on the playground is still a rare species, even in a hipster hotbed like Berlin. Yet this is exactly the situation Metin finds himself in. After Emma, his girlfriend and mother of his 6-month-old daughter Lene, suddenly dies, there's not much time for grieving – the baby needs care, 24/7. Metin always thought of himself as the epitome of the 21st Century Dad, but now, he is completely overwhelmed. Raised by a single mother himself, he is quick to wall off any help coming from her. Like all children, Metin hopes to be nothing like her as a parent and looks to other men as exemplars of his ideals of fatherhood. No, he surely knows better! However, losing the love of his life has an effect on Metin's relationships with the various people around him: friends, family, colleagues and strangers. Most of all, how he sees himself. He has to grow up for Lene and learn how to balance parenthood, masculinity, responsibility – and time for Playstation.

In a juvenile detention center at the Gulf of Naples, the inmates are dealing with power structures and adult expectations. Yet being locked up does not stop them from dreaming of a better tomorrow.

Naples: still an organized crime stronghold. For many teenagers, doing time is part of their "job". Yet Filippo and Carmine never imagined themselves to go down this path. Filippo, who comes from a well-off family from the North, has dreams of becoming a musician. Carmine, from a Camorra family, wants to become a famous hairdresser instead of taking up the family business. Both of them have committed serious crimes, their dreams cut short as their freedom taken is away. Will they be strong enough to oppose the attacks from fellow detainee Ciro, the young, up-and-coming crime boss? What chances are there for young love, as Filippo falls for female inmate Naditza? Though the prison's director Paola and correctional officer Massimo still try hard to help these "flawed" kids, the boys and girls behind bars are often left to fend for themselves. What they share though is a beautiful view over the sea promising a future in which their dreams may come true.

Three young military cadets, each driven by their very own motives, on their strenuous way to become fighter pilots: From their rigorous training to their first combat missions in the Middle East, their camaraderie is put to a merciless test.

When bad boy Rutger signs up for the Royal Dutch Military Academy, it is less out of patriotism than self-preservation. It's an easy choice: Join or go to jail. Soon, he adjusts to the rigorous training and humiliations by his commanding officer and teams up with two fellow cadets. Guus, the General's son, and Leyla, determined to prove herself. As different as they are, they share the same dream: to earn their wings and fly the legendary F16. Strengthened by a growing bond, the three of them stick together against bullies and rivals. The demands of flight school, followed by their tough combat training in Arizona, put their stamina to the test. Yet, against all odds, they graduate with flying colors. And, as they find love and adventure, some of their doubts and fears are put to rest. Except for Rutger, whose troubling past comes back to haunt him. And when they are sent on a dangerous combat mission to the Middle East, they will have to learn that war is more than just a military exercise.

After the roaring ratings success of the first season, Hudson & Rex are back for more!

Detective Charlie Hudson has a team he can count on, for the St. John's major crimes unit has all it takes! Always on Charlie's side: former K-9 German Shepherd Rex, who has saved Charlie's life in more than one way. He's the heart of the unit that is aided by Dr. Sarah Truong, the young and attractive Head of Forensics – who might become more than just a colleague to Charlie. Headed by the hard-boiled Superintendent Joe Donovan, who never cracks under pressure, and completed by Jesse, the tech analyst, who's an absolute computer genius, it is Rex, who keeps the team's spirits high in face of St. John's seedy elements they have to hunt down every day. It's not only Charlie's tireless dedication that makes this unit special – Rex's keen, super-human senses, stealth and agility are often what helps them to wipe out the crime that washes up on St John's shore. From kidnapping, homicide and hostage situations, to fraud and corruption in high places, Charlie, Rex and their team are a force to be reckoned with.

An epic saga of the senselessness of war and its aftermath.

Based on the bestselling novel by Siegfried Lenz.

Directed by Academy Award® Winner Florian Gallenberger.

Summer 1944: Fighting a war that is already lost, Walter, a young German soldier, is en route to the Eastern Front when his train is blown up by a landmine. Luckily, he survives and is instead posted to a small unit in the Polish woods, surrounded by partisans. Ordered by his sadistic commander to perform deeds of brutality, he is soon torn between a sense of duty, guilt and his conscience, not made any easier by his love for the Polish partisan Wanda, who is expecting his child. Sworn to uphold his military vows, he is yet disgusted by the escalating cruelty and, like many of his compatriots, no longer knows why, who, or what he's fighting for. Escaping death when his unit is wiped out and faced by this moral dilemma, he ultimately defects, and, by January 1945, is part of the Red Army – sure that he is finally fighting for the right cause. Yet in the aftermath of war, in Berlin's Soviet Zone, he has his doubts as he realizes that neither he nor the country can shed the burdens of the past. Once again, as his fate hangs in the balance, he is forced to make a moral decision, defecting yet again – this time, to the West.

LOUIS VAN BEETHOVEN

Beethoven has always been passionate about three things: music, freedom and verity. His battle against musical and social conventions lasts all his life – but his opus will last forever. Starring Tobias Moretti (BAD BANKS) and Ulrich Noethen (DOWNFALL)

1779. Eight-year-old Ludwig van Beethoven, called "Louis", is already known as a musical prodigy. He learns to go his own way – much to the dismay of the people around him. Some years later, he meets Mozart during times of political upheaval. The unconventional genius and French Revolution are sparking a fire in Louis' heart; he doesn't want to serve a master – only the arts! Facing times of family tragedies and unrequited love, he almost gives up. However, Louis makes it to Vienna to study under Haydn in 1792, and the rest is history. Who was this man, whose music has since touched countless hearts and minds? At the end of his life, the master is isolated by loss of loved ones and hearing. Surely though, he was way ahead of his times...

THE WEIGHT OF STEEL

Inspired by true events, an epic clash between conscience and commerce and two strong and very different personalities results in a moral turning point for post-war Germany.

1973: Krupp, Germany's industrial steel giant, is verging on bankruptcy. Berthold Beitz, the company's CEO for over 20 years, hopes to save it by giving it a new face. He commissions Golo Mann, son of the famed author Thomas, to pen the biography of Krupp's founder. But the more the historian digs into the past, the more his focus shifts to Beitz's own story. During WWII, he saved hundreds of Jews in occupied Poland and is still haunted by those he couldn't save. How can he reconcile that with saving the nation's former armory? A moral dilemma between conscience and commerce and two very different men. Beitz is forced to confront and accept his past and, once he does, becomes a beacon of hope for post-war Germany.

It's Christmas season! Mia is stressed out: a window designer for a Boston luxury department store, she must win an upcoming competition to stay employed. But her family needs her as the local Snowflake Festival is up a creek and the handsome but traditionalist manager Adam is out of ideas. So she goes to Connecticut for the weekend. Mia feels inspired and is hopeful she can save the festival – but Adam resists all innovation. He's cute though and her charm and hands-on ways win him over: opposites attract! Mia even skips work to stay longer. They infect the whole town with their Christmas spirit, as everyone comes together to help. However, Mia also has to keep her job. Will she be able to fit it all in... including Adam?

LOST IN SEPARATION

After a 25-year marriage, Doris finds out about her husband Georg's affair with a student. As they try to find a civilized way through the minefield that is a divorce via couple's therapy, they soon realize that nothing is easy in matters of love and separation...

Starring Martina Gedeck (THE LIVES OF OTHERS) and Ulrich Tukur (JOHN RABE)

With two kids, a house, a dog, and two fiftieth birthdays, Doris and Georg are the perfect middle-class couple. That doesn't stop them from separating after nearly a quarter-century marriage. As the couple attempt to analyze their past in joint therapy sessions, Doris' newfound freedom allows her to blossom in both her professional and personal life, while Georg's affair with a much younger doctoral student starts to fall apart. He's bothered by Doris' ability to thrive without him. Can he turn things around? Will Doris let him? And is that what both of them really want?

Set between post-earthquake Naples in the 1980s and present-day Riga, the cinematic spin-off from the international hit series Gomorrah follows the early life and current exile of Ciro Di Marzio, aka "The Immortal".

Having been shot in the chest by his only real friend Genny, Ciro sinks down into the dark waters of the Gulf of Naples. As he drifts towards the depths, memories float upwards. Faint sounds find their way through the cold embrace of the water – muffled screams of panic! It's 1980. A devastating earthquake sends buildings crashing down. Yet from underneath the rubble, the cry of a newborn baby emerges. It is none other than Ciro di Marzio. From that day on, he will be known as "The Immortal". Years later, Ciro survives even that fateful gunshot. What they say is true: no one and nothing can kill the Immortal. From his past as an orphan to his present-day Baltic exile, from his first petty thefts to all-out gang warfare: Ciro confronts head-on whatever comes his way, in a world in which immortality is just another form of damnation.

Three teams of police officers patrol the streets of Sofia in this sometimes tragic, often amusing and acutely true-to-life portrait of a society losing all sense.

Sofia, the early hours of November 9, 2019. As the country prepares to celebrate the 30th anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall and the regime change in Bulgaria, three police patrol cars roam the streets of the sleeping city. The officers on their rounds are on a journey through a society that is still looking for its purpose and identity after three decades of transition. They witness scenes of survival and failure, of lives saved while others are lost, of generosity dissolving into social cruelty and indifference. In the end, the elusive preservation of dignity seems to be the sole point of getting through the night.

A young widow faces the difficult choice between either abandoning her son or succumbing to endless poverty and social degradation in present-day Iran.

Leila, a single working mom of two, lives in sanctions-gripped Iran. The factory she works at is in crisis: jobs are at stake. Kazem, the factory bus driver, proposes marriage to Leila, but she hesitates to accept. He has a daughter the same age as her 12-year-old son Amir, and since tradition frowns upon a young girl sharing a household with her stepbrother, Kazem tells Leila not to bring her son until he marries his daughter off. When Leila is fired, she decides to stay with Kazem and leave Amir in the care of a boarding school until she figures out how to manage his return. Yet, after a few months, Amir escapes. He faces Kazem, who urges him to think about his family's future. Now, it is Amir who has to decide.

THE SPACE BETWEEN THE LINES

Based on the international bestseller translated into over 40 languages.

From the producers of TONI ERDMANN. Starring Alexander Fehling (LABYRINTH OF LIES).

Original soundtrack by Oscar® nominee Hauschka (LION, ADRIFT, HOTEL MUMBAI).

Emmi would like to cancel her subscription to “Like” magazine via e-mail. But due to a typo, her messages land in Leo Leike’s inbox. When Emmi repeatedly sends mails to the wrong address, Leo decides to inform her of her mistake. This marks the beginning of an extraordinary e-mail exchange, one that could only be held between two strangers. Treading the fine line between complete strangeness and noncommittal intimacy, the two are soon sharing their innermost secrets and longings – until they need to face the unavoidable question: Will their feelings, sent and received virtually, survive the test of a real-life encounter? And what will happen if they do?

JOHN NEUMEIER · HAMBURG BALLETT BEETHOVEN PROJECT

Hamburg Ballett Director and Choreographer John Neumeier has created a ballet on the music of Ludwig van Beethoven which ranges from solo dance to ensemble performance to great classical ballet scenes. Aleix Martínez – "a force of nature" (tanz) – dances the leading role as Beethoven at the Festspielhaus Baden-Baden. The dancers are phenomenal, a fantastic ensemble performance that can only succeed if a company dances at such a high level as the Hamburg Ballett.

HERBERT VON KARAJAN · LEONARD BERNSTEIN · CARLOS KLEIBER · KARL BÖHM

Unitel has always placed the greatest emphasis on quality, that includes the production technology – for many years Unitel produced on 35 and 16mm film. But also on the storage to ensure perfect conditions for the film negatives, which were frozen at Unitel's archive at minus 4 degrees centigrade. Thanks to a co-operation with NHK, you can experience now nine of the greatest performances of all times with Karajan, Böhm, Bernstein and Kleiber in 8K image quality! The negatives were carefully defrosted and scanned in Germany by state-of-the art technology in 8K image quality. Then the scans were restored in Tokyo carefully frame by frame and successfully remastered to the digital high-definition 8K image quality with 22.2ch multichannel surround sound. These new masters now allow distribution not only in 8K, but also in all current formats such as UHD and HD. True gems – and even for everyone!
