Alive and Kicking

Four teens, Mickey, Yeray, Sam and Guada, are locked away on an island in a mental institution. Their bill of health is hefty: attention deficit disorder, obsessiveness, bipolar disorder, anxiety attacks, and sociopathic tendencies. When Guada has only one day left in the institution, all four of them make their escape to freedom. The thrill of it makes them feel like they could conquer the world. But soon, they face a ton of problems: How to get off the island? How to get food? How to travel? Where to go next? And most importantly, how not to get caught. But despite all this, a common strength unites them: the power of imagination. It got them out and now it will get them to Ibiza, to Mickey's brother who is sure to take them in... With a detective on their heels, the "fab four" miraculously overcome all obstacles with the help of their very own ingenuity, courage and wit – begging the question, who is truly sick: them or society locking them in.

All-Round Champion

A feel-good reality series that features ten of North America's most decorated young athletes who compete in the ultimate competition in sports like wakeboarding, gymnastics and skateboarding. The catch? They won't be competing in their own sports; they'll be competing in each other's. Scored on skill, sportsmanship and improvement at the end of the series, one athlete will be crowned the

All-Round Champion.

Originally created by Norwegian public broadcaster NRK, "Best i mest" saw huge success in Norway, winning an International Emmy Kids Award for Non-Scripted Entertainment, as well as a Prix Jeunesse.

The Club of Ugly Children - The Countdown

Welcome to “The Face” – the show where only your appearance counts! It’s a big hit on TV – and the President’s favorite. He wants all kids to live up to his motto, which includes their looks: “Keep it clean!” No flaws allowed. Kai is psyched when he makes it on the show, while Roxy, whose dad works for them, hates even the concept. When the whole studio is taken hostage, they and a couple of kids escape. The hostage takers’ plan: to force the President to step down. They believe he is planning a coup to grab absolute power. Step by step, the kids get closer to the truth as everyone’s secrets start to unravel. Who will the kids believe? Which side do they choose? And will they manage to save their parents – and each other?

Like Me

What is exclusion really like? A look, a comment, the lack of likes, a snap group you were not included or a birthday party you were not invited to: bullying is often invisible. Far too many kids and teens experience it each and every day. When her best friend Arin is welcomed into a friend group of popular girls, leaving her best friend Oda increasingly isolated. By showing both perspectives, those of the victim and those doing the exclusion, kids will be able to relate to similar situations and see how they are amplified by social media.

Ollie

Right in the middle of a very busy city, there is a peaceful place. It's a little park, closed off and forgotten, a true oasis in the concrete jungle. It is where you can find Ollie and his friends. A little owl, a small stork, a young frog and five little birds live there, and they have many adventures together. Small stories about big issues like discovery, friendship, being alone, and the importance of the little things in life. If you want to meet Ollie and his friends, you best come at nightfall. That's when the city turns quiet and everybody goes to sleep. Except for Ollie and his friends who are still awake, just long enough for a little adventure.

Talking Heads

Kids found out what many already know: the hairdresser is the better therapist. While it might be hard to open up to adults, this coiffeur has a way of listening. The kids are able to tell their worries and stories, the good and the bad, while they sit. And many cut deep. All of them find themselves not only with a brand-new haircut, but might also be able to somewhat leave their sorrows behind after a visit in this hair salon. A touching reality show that is the realest thing you'll ever see.

Whitestar

Megan has always dreamed of being a successful dressage rider just like her dad. She even works for money-hungry stable owner Alex to be around horses. When beautiful stallion Whitestar is born, they instantly form a deep, lasting bond. But Whitestar turns out to be unmanageable and Alex decides to get rid of him. Saving him at the last minute, Megan hides the horse and secretly starts training him. Alex gets a whiff of it when they win their first competition; he senses a profit and takes Whitestar away. Megan is heartbroken. A few years later, she comes across Whitestar by chance and their bond proves to still be intact. She will have just one more chance to win him back – a dressage competition in which everything is at stake.

Shame - International Remakes

SHAME - The cult series for teens all over the globe

Having started as a low-budget Norwegian web series, SHAME (OT: SKAM) broke all viewership records in its home country as well as in Denmark and Sweden. The show quickly built up an active international fanbase on social media and repeatedly made headlines all over the globe for its popularity surge. Within just three years, the critically acclaimed and multi-awarded web series also has spawned several successful international remakes.

Eva has just started high school. Apparently, she has no one to rely on, other than her boyfriend Jonas and her best friend Isak. Eva feels lonely but decides to take responsibility for her life. She wants to seek out other venues and people that can offer her new impulses and might even lead to new friendships. Yet she faces questions like who she really is and how far she would be willing to go on account of other people before she compromises her own values. Each season features a different main character, and it is their story and their perspective that the narrative tracks. We follow the girls and boys through heartbreak, partying and all the challenges young people face as they begin high school and start the last chapter before finally entering adulthood.

SHAME is a drama series dismantling taboos and speaking from the heart of its 16 to 20-year-old target audience. The story takes place in real time and is published daily through web-specific storytelling elements, texts, images and grabs, as well as live-action on SHAME websites / apps, generating heavy online traffic in each broadcasting territory. Every week, a summary episode containing all the daily episodes is published for online and on linear TV.

„Norwegian TV drama Shame has been a hit with teens and their parents!“
 THE GUARDIAN

„Skam, a racy, emotionally intense, true-to-life Norwegian web and television series.“
 THE NEW YORK TIMES

„The show as it stands now is a perfect example of what a truly democratic TV should look like in the 21st century.“
 THE HUFFINGTON POST

„It might also be one of the best TV shows about high school ever made.“
