10 EPISODES | HISTORICAL DRAMA | HUNGARIAN, GERMAN, ITALIAN, AND OTHERS

One of the most epic European TV productions of all time. From acclaimed producer Robert Lantos (SUNSHINE, THE SWEET HEREAFTER, BARNEY'S VERSION, EASTERN PROMISES, CRIMES OF THE FUTURE).

RISE OF THE RAVEN

The 15th century. Fearless army commander János Hunyadi devotes his life to defending Europe against an Ottoman invasion. His life is plagued by scandal, political power plays, and conspiracies between noble families from Italy, Poland, Austria, Serbia, and Hungary. His strongest allies are the women in his life: Erzsébet, the wife who not only stands by him, but fights alongside him, and Mara, his first love, who breaks his heart by becoming lead concubine in Sultan Murad's court. When the Ottoman Empire mobilizes an army of unprecedented size to march west with the objective of conquering the Vatican and Europe, Hunyadi leads his small but mighty army to the battlefield, sealing a hard-fought victory. In celebration, Pope Callixtus III orders that churches all over the world shall ring their bells every day at noon. And even today, more than five centuries later, they still do.

Local beauties Hypatia and Maria relish the carefree attitude of their newfound friends, while sexy outsiders Harry and Pete benevolently rule over the peaceful commune of pot-smoking hippies. Friends from childhood, they share a deep bond of love and respect for each other, but theirs is a 'lavender marriage' of mutual convenience. For Book is a gay man at a time when homosexuality is illegal. Blissfully happy at home, Book nevertheless carries with him a sadness, as the love of his life was betrayed and died in the war. When Jack, a young man with a past as an ex-convict, is sent to work at the bookshop, Book and Trottie welcome him into the family fold with open arms. But it's not long before Jack starts to suspect that his appointment was anything but random. Could their past and his be inextricably linked?

FÜHRER AND SEDUCER

Joseph Goebbels, the Minister of Propaganda, accompanies Hitler during the seven years from the "Anschluss" of Austria in March 1938 to the murder and suicide in the Führerbunker in May 1945. While Hitler is at the height of his power, Goebbels is the creator of the pictures of the flag waving crowds and of the anti-Semitic films "Jud Süß" and "Der ewige Jude", that prepare the people for the mass murder of the Jews. After the defeat at Stalingrad and the situation becoming increasingly hopeless in late 1944, Goebbels plans the most radical propaganda act, his last staging, with Hitler's suicide, the murder of his family, and his own suicide.
